His body was lying in a ditch beside the road, and the dead body of his horse was lying a few feet from him. When last seen he was very drunk.—Born, to the deserted wife of Alonso Provins, near Fariston, a baby boy. Provins left his wife several months ago for parts unknown.—London Kentuckian.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued them for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts., guaranteed, at Penney's Drug Store.

Since it has been established 13,345 persons have been buried in the Lexington cemetery. Last year 327 were buried, and of that number 29 were soldiers.

Mr. Joe E. Robinson has gone West on a business trip. Hon. W. B. Mason has been to Lexington.

Letcher Owlsay says that minor events will now be reckoned from the day I hauled the fiddler.

Col. W. S. Miller has the old pepper-box pistol with which Sam Evans shot five of the Hills in the Hill-Evans feud in 1846.

Rev. Lapsley McKee delivered a splendid address to the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. The boys are in earnest and much good will be done by these meetings.

The skating rink is flourishing under the management of Smith and Henry. As a revived art it is drawing large crowds. They wonder why neighboring towns are so far behind.

The pension board now consists of Drs. E. Evans, I. S. Wesley and H. M. Grant. They will soon arrange to meet every Wednesday instead of twice a month as they do at present.

It is said of one of our best citizens that he once rented a cow pasture and was so parsimonious that he frequently visited the place and drove the birds away to keep them from devouring the grass.

Rev. J. C. Massee, a native of Georgia, who has been employed as pastor of the Baptist church, preached to a large audience on Sunday and made a splendid impression. He is a forcible and attractive speaker.

On Saturday morning a sable lad of 12 years, shot at Jutta Stodghill, colored, because the latter struck him. He was taken before Judge Brown and fined $20, to pay which he was sent to the work-house for 20 days.

To-day, Monday, at 10:30 a.m., Geo. D. Lusk and Miss George Miller were married at the beautiful residence of the bride's father on Danville Ave., by Rev. Lapsley McKee. Miss Mae Hughes played the wedding march. Only relatives and intimate friends were present. The bride's brother, J. Paul Miller, of Kentucky University, witnessed the ceremony. Many valuable presents were given the happy pair and they left at one for Lawrenceburg, where Mr. Lusk is located as a revenue officer. They have been devoted to each other for a long time, and their many friends extend congratulations.

The fiscal court convened last week and its proceedings indicate the fact that every thing is not as serene as a balmy May day. As I predicted, an application was made for the reparation of an old turnpike road, on which toll had been discontinued long ago, and which was used as a county road when the turnpikes were purchased.

There are few dirt roads in as bad condition as are the pikes of this country now. Free turnpikes should be the slogan of every citizen of Casey county. Exorbitant toll is charged and no pikes.

Green River has been on a rampage for the past three weeks and we have only had a mail on an average of three times a week, and hence no letters from this neck to the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

At a recent meeting of the Fulman Brutum society, the following officers were elected: President, O. R. Jones; Vice President, J. R. Staton; Secretary, Miss Cora Gooch; Critic, Miss Florence Christopher; Marshal, Mr. Steuben Godfrey.

MIDDLEBURY.

Rev. George Green, who lately married Miss Lou Coleman, has been called to the pastorate charge of the Baptist church here. Bro. Green is a fine preacher for his age and will doubtless make the church a good pastor. He filled his first appointment here Saturday and Sunday.

It is evident that our people do not intend that whisky shall be sold here and they who attempt it may not be surprised if they get into hot water. The fate of Jim Chapman ought to serve as a warning to others. He was considered a bad man and a bully, having killed his man, but that did not deter our people from moving against him, as they will others who attempt the damnable traffic in our midst. It is rid of a very bad man and we only regret that Sheriff Brown was forced to do the act.

John Delk is dead after nearly 12 months' suffering with erysipelas in his feet. He came here from Honey Grove, Texas, last May, and Drs. W. T. Garner and W. L. Lowder amputated his left foot, but the operation had been delayed too long to do any good save to prolong his life for a short time only. He has suffered untold misery and doubtless death was a welcome visitor to his bedside. He leaves a wife and two small children to mourn the loss of husband and father. After services at the grave by Rev. George Green, the remains were laid to rest in the Jones burying ground on Indian creek.

T. S. BENSON.

On Saturday morning a sable lad of 12 years, shot at Jutta Stodghill, colored, because the latter struck him. He was taken before Judge Brown and fined $20, to pay which he was sent to the work-house for 20 days.

Little Willie Dunham, a pupil of J. W. L., while visiting at Mr. J. C. Lay's, fell in a kettle of boiling water and was badly, but not fatally burned.

There are few dirt roads in as bad condition as are the pikes of this country now. Free turnpikes should be the slogan of every citizen of Casey county. Exorbitant toll is charged and no pikes.

Green River has been on a rampage for the past three weeks and we have only had a mail on an average of three times a week, and hence no letters from this neck to the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

At a church near Ironon, O., the son of a minister was shot and killed by a man whom the father had reproved.

The Rev. L. L. Pickett has bought the State right of Texas to sell the Bromley wire fence and has gone thither to sell fence and hold protracted meetings.

A girl of 19 is dying in Chicago from the effects of sticking needles into herself, every time she sinned, done she says by order of a Catholic priest. X-rays show that there are eight or more needles in her body in vital points.

The Rev. G. W. Perriman seems to be a very busy man, for in addition to preaching twice every Sunday and every Wednesday night, he finds time to edit the Baptist Evangelist and lecture on "Wasted, A Man." The Evangelist is published at Middlesboro and is a fine church paper.

Two Bible students who were out slumming at Lexington Sunday to secure evidence against the bar rooms, were caught and severely beaten. The feeling is becoming very bitter and if the W. C. T. U. and Christian Endeavor Societies continue their work trouble may result. More than half the saloons were not closed Sunday.

Theodore Gorgi and wife are under arrest at Dayton, O., for letting their child die of pneumonia, without effort to save it except by prayer. "I would rather be persecuted and give up my life than go contrary to the teachings of the Bible," the father explained to the coroner. "If it was the will of God that my child should die, nothing can change His decision."

DANVILLE.

The Christian Endeavor Society met at the Christian church Sunday evening.

The "Scribblers" met with Mr. Norwood at the home of Gov. Knott. Several interesting papers were read.

Dr. J. T. Lapsley was called to Garrison Wednesday to preach the funeral discourse of Mr. Mike Robinson. Interment in family burying ground near Harmony church.

True "the days are dark and dreary" for it rains and pours and "the wind is never weary." I never saw the streets of Danville quite so muddy as now. With this warm rainy weather grip is on the increase.

Mrs. Wm. Warren received a telegram announcing the sudden death of her nephew, Mr. Pitman, of St. Louis. He had been ill with grip and although his physician prescribed other medicines, he took phenacetin to relieve his intense suffering and was found unconscious and died in a few hours.

Mrs. W. G. Dunlap and daughter, Miss Bessie, returned from Louisville Saturday bringing Miss Elizabeth Vandye Cheatham with them. Miss Johnson has recovered from grip and resumed her duties at the College. Mrs. Hugh Ross Adams, of Corinth, Miss., is the guest of Mrs. C. R. McDowell. Gabe Caldwell, the genial popular pharmacist, with Mr. J. S. Wells, is quite sick. Leslie McMurry fills his position for the present. Mrs. Chas. Fox continues very ill with grip. Ebelen, of Burgin, is in town. The Beta Theta Pi Society will give a reception this week. Mrs. E. S. Rowland and Miss Bryant have returned from Louisville.

Star Pointer's stud services are in demand. Twenty applications were received to breed to him in one day at the Two Minute Farm.

The storm did much damage in Bourbon. A large barn on Horace Miller's farm was demolished and 40 cattle killed. Near Centreville two large tobacco barns were blown down.

A Californian has patented an automatic stock-feeding apparatus in which a clock releases a weight at the desired hour, the fall of the weight lifting the cover of the feed box and dropping hay down from a rack overhead.

The Winchester Democrat has reports of sales of a lot of 1,400-lb cattle at 4:45, a number of butcher cattle at 2:30 to 3:65 and several car-loads of hogs at 3c. It also says that Columbus Thompson & Son sold a Wild Eyes heifer for $300 and a Wild Eyes bull calf for $100.

Many Mercer county farmers are refusing to engage their lambs at 5 cents a pound. W. F. Farney bought a load of corn, delivered at his barn near town, last week, at $1.40 per barrel.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

The exporting of corn to Europe and other foreign ports from Texas is becoming an immense business. More than 1,500,000 bushels have been loaded into steamers at Galveston within the last two months, and over 98 per cent. of this corn was grown in Texas. The corn exporting season has just begun, and the shipments thus far made are small in comparison with what will be made.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JAN 17, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

ELSEWHERE in this issue we give a sample of the testimony of Commissary General Eagan before the war investigation commission, which for unadulterated billingsgate and bitterness, has not a counterpart. Gen. Miles charged that the canned beef sent to the army was unfit for use and that it was sent "under pretense of experiment," referring to it as "embalmed beef." When Eagan went before the commission to testify, he read a type written statement instead, in which the paragraph that we reproduce occurs and which is an index to the vituperation and abuse heaped upon the ranking general of the army by a subordinate through several columns of printed matter. The commission after letting him read the statement and giving it out to the press, returned it to Eagan and told him to eliminate the objectionable matter as it was too unclean for the commission's records. So far the president has taken no action towards having Eagan court martialed, which would indicate that he and Secretary Alger were privy to the disgraceful attack on Miles. Eagan also takes a crack at Inspector General Breckinridge, who only remarked when his opinion was asked of the matter that army officers ought to be gentlemen. That Eagan is not a gentleman and that he is a disgrace and a menace to the discipline of the army, is too plain to admit of discussion. The incident will lower army officers in the eyes of the world and unless rebuked will have a most damaging effect on both the rank and file. The president owes it to them and the country to see that the filthy scavenger is not only kicked out of the army, but otherwise severely punished.

HART county juries seem to forget that capital punishment alone fits certain crimes, or they would not have let the scoundrelly Baptist preacher and the degenerate school teacher off with life sentences. The "Rev." Doyle while on his rounds with the avowed intention of saving souls, looked with lustful eyes on a fair young woman, who in an evil hour fell a victim to his designs. The liaison was kept up for months and when their shame could no longer be concealed, the scoundrel proposed that there be a resort to abortion. A fiend who was known as Prof. McClure was secured for $50 to perform the operation, which he did in the most bungling manner with curling irons and as a natural result the woman died, after giving the name of her betrayer and identifying the professor. The latter tried to prove an alibi, but failing, was permitted to continue his miserable existence by being sent to the penitentiary for life. The preacher made a full confession and he too was let off with a life sentence. The courts having so signally failed to do their duty, Judge Lynch might with great propriety be called on to convene his. The earth should no longer be polluted with the carcasses of the vile wrecks.

CHARLES M. LEWIS, editor of the Shelbyville Sentinel, is the object of much advertising by the 3rd district papers, because he represents that district in the State Central Committee and lives in the 8th. But we need Bro. Lewis in our business, especially since Col. Jack has left the district to hold itself up by its own tail, and gone West to help elect a populist senator.

THE Court of Appeals holds that circuit judges can not fix special compensation for commissioners, who must only get the statutory fees for the sale of property. In many cases, judges, who are very liberal usually with other people's money, have fixed the compensation at 40 times the amount named by the statutes and many suits may be instituted to recover the excess.

THE 3rd Kentucky may not go to Cuba after all, as Representative Clardy is trying to induce the war department to have it mustered out; while Colson is moving all of the Heaven and earth he can to keep the 4th in. Denied of his Congressional salary and cut out of that of colonel, Colson will be like a fish out of water and he wants to avert such a calamity.

TRIGG county is in the throes of a prohibition election, which is to be pulled off on the 28th. No other contest can cause more excitement or more bitterness than that of a local option, which ought to be treated as a purely moral question and voted for without excitement by every lover of his kind without the usual resort to the passions.

PROF. W. L. WILSON, who is president of the Washington & Lee University, denies the story that he has been offered the presidency of Yale. As Wilson served in a democratic cabinet and has confessed that he voted for McKinley, it is better to let his name rest and permit it to be forgotten as soon as possible.

The Winchester Sun and the Mt. Sterling Sentinel unite in a big send-off for Judge Hazelrigg for governor.

HON. NELSON DINGLEY, chairman of the House Ways and Means committee and leader of the republican side of that body, died Friday night after two weeks' illness of double pneumonia. He had been governor of Maine and since 1881 represented the 2d district of that State in Congress, where he always stood high as a man and as a financier, which subject was an especial study for years. He is the author of the present tariff bill which bears his name and which he put through Congress in 16 days after the extraordinary session to consider it was commenced. The funeral occurred in the House of Representatives yesterday, after which the remains were taken to Lewiston, Me., for interment. Speaker Reed will appoint Sen. E. Payne, of New York, to the vacant chairmanship.

MISS VAUGHAN, of Paducah, has certainly gotten herself and family into a mess. While at Benton Harbor, Mich., recently, she fell in love with and married a barber. The family was greatly outraged by her action and her brothers went thither and brought her home. Now the husband, Frank Ball, has sued them for $50,000 for alienation of his wife's affections and he ought to get it all. Her family stands very high at home, but this is no reason that the brothers should tear the wife from the arms of her husband. She made her own bed and should lie on it, unless she is too weak of mind, as she may be, to enter into a marriage contract.

EIGHTEEN Louisville laundries will have to pay the sinking fund $200 each under a recent decision of the court of appeals. This seems to be a tax on cleanliness, which John Wesley, not the Bible as many think, said is next to Godliness.

THE new Senator from Vermont, Jonathan Ross, has more whiskers than the late Senator Peffer, but there will hardly as much wind blow through them. Ross' picture further shows that he is a sure enough Uncle Jonathan.

THE Spencer Courier has risen from its ashes with renewed life and vigor. You can't keep a good man like Editor Lew B. Brown down, even with the sword and the torch.

POLITICAL POINTS.

McMillin was inaugurated governor of Tennessee yesterday.

The democratic committee of Shelby county, has called a primary for Feb. 25, to select a candidate for the Legislature.

The new editor of the Pineville Courier, Isham O. Siler, publishes a statement which shows that he votes any way and every way.

It costs something to run for office in Lexington. The democratic committee has assessed the candidates from $35 for assessor to $100 for mayor.

The inquiry as to the status of Gen. Wheeler and other members of the House who accepted commissions in the army will be begun by the House committee today.

J. R. Hawley has been nominated for his 4th term in the U. S. Senate, which is equivalent to an election and if he lives to serve out the term he will be 79 at its close.

As the republicans failed to file a petition for a rehearing in the election law before the time for doing so expired, they have doubtless abandoned the fight against it.

The silver tongued Chauncey M. Depew has been nominated for the U. S. Senate by the New York republicans to succeed Murphy, dem., who was given the empty honor of a renomination.

Opponents in the Senate of the peace treaty claim to be confident of their ability to defeat the measure on a vote and say that the friends of the agreement will seek to postpone a vote until next session.

Senator Hoar introduced a resolution declaring that the people of the Philippine Islands ought to be free and independent, and that the people of the United States do not propose to interfere with their rights.

John B. Thompson told a Washington reporter that P. Watt Hardin will be the democratic nominee for governor. The next Legislature will be democratic in both branches and will elect Blackburn to the Senate.

Editor John C. Wood, railroad commissioner, who wants to succeed himself, is trying to get the authorities to have a separate convention for the nomination for the office he seeks and not have it with the State convention.

Following are announced for the Legislature in Louisville: Capt. "Bob" Tyler, dem., John M. Letterle, dem., Henry L. Kremer, dem., Albert Charlton, dem., Arthur Dettweller, rep., Shirley Everton, rep., and Dr. J. E. Cashin, dem.

Senator Gray of the peace commission discussing the policy of expansion, said that he had ardently desired "that we might escape the necessity of taking the Philippine Islands," but that out of unexpected conditions had arisen.

The leading Missouri democrats are almost a unit on declaring that Bryan and the issues of 1896 should be the order of things next year.

The West Virginia democrats hold their Senatorial caucus Wednesday night, and the republicans on Thursday night. Balloting for a Senator must begin in joint session next Monday.

So say all of us with the Glasgow News: It is announced for the thousand-and-one time that "Ex-Gov. Brown will shortly announce himself a candidate for the democratic gubernatorial nomination." It is to be hoped that Gov. Brown will announce himself at once, even if he does not stay in the race until it is finished, just to stop this eternal talk about his being on the eve of entering the race.

Mr. Van Voorhis will offer a substitute for McCleary's currency bill embodying three propositions and said to be endorsed by McKinley: To permit the national banks to issue notes equal to the face of their bonds, to authorize the organization of national banks with a minimum capital stock of $25,000, instead of $50,000, as at present, and to require that greenbacks once having been redeemed in gold, shall not again be paid out except for gold, thus breaking the "endless chain."

Commissary General Eagan reappeared before the war investigating commission and read a type-written statement, in which he violently denounced Maj. Gen. Miles for the latter's statement that the shipment of tinned beef to Ponce for the army was under "pretense of an experiment." Said he, "This is a serious charge and I answer that it was not furnished under the pretense of experiment, nor even as an experiment, and when Gen. Miles charges that it was furnished as a 'pretense of experiment,' he lies in his throat, he lies in his heart, he lies in every hair of his head and every pore of his body; he lies willfully, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously. In denouncing Gen. Miles as a liar when he makes this statement, I wish to make it as emphatic and as coarse as the statement itself. I wish to force the lie back into his throat, covered with the contents of a camp latrine. I wish to brand it as a falsehood of whole cloth, without a particle of truth to sustain it, and unless he can prove his statement he should be denounced by every honest man, barred from the clubs, barred from the society of decent people, and so ostracized that the street bootblacks would not condescend to speak to him, for he has fouled his own nest, he has aspersed the honor of a brother officer without a particle of evidence or fact to sustain in any degree his scandalous, libelous, malicious falsehood."

Quesched.
I understand that Fred Blakesley and Maude Ashbourne have ceased to be friends.

"Yes, they don't speak to each other now."

"What's the trouble, I wonder?"

"He started to propose to her the other night and had just begun to say that his breast was on fire when her father turned the hose on him."—Chicago Daily News.

Different with Her.

They had been talking of the war hero.

"When he passed through our town, said the blonde, triumphantly, 'I kissed him.'

"Quite likely," answered the brnette, "but I have never found it necessary to take the initiative in such matters."—Chicago Post.

Proof Positive.

"By Jove, you know, as I was driving down town the other day in my dog cart, a street car ran slap into me and carried me nearly half a block."

"Pshaw! Was the conductor much excited?"

"Must have been. Didn't even ask me for a fare."—Brooklyn Life.

The Nuts We Used to Eat.

"Tis now the melancholy time when nuts are hawked around, And men think of the pecks they used To pick up from the ground— When men look back with vain regret On days of long ago.

And think of nuts they used to eat That now would lay them low.

—Chicago Daily News.

Professional Objections.

"I think," said the judge, "I will have to send you to the workhouse."

The prisoner shuddered.

"Couldn't you make it the jail, judge?" he asked. "I don't mind the confinement, but I don't like the name. It sounds horrible."—Chicago Post.

Decidedly Not.

"You have never seen our stock yards before? You will find the sight worth seeing, although many fastidious persons turn up their noses at it."

"Well, that's not what I am doing with my nose. I'm trying to close it down."—Chicago Tribune.

No Doubt Appropriate.

"How did he open his address of welcome to the corset manufacturers' convention?"

"He began by saying: 'Ladies and gentlemen of the press,' and invited them to stay."—Philadelphia Times.

A Graduate.

"I hope," said the philanthropic caller at the jail, "that you appreciate the true meaning of penitence."

"I reckon I does," replied the hardened offender. "I spent eight years in a penitentiary."—Washington Star.

The hair

is like a plant. What makes the plant fade and wither? Usually lack of necessary nourishment. The reason why Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor restores gray or faded hair to its normal color, stops hair from falling, and makes it grow, is because it supplies the nourishment the hair needs.

MCKINNEY.—A long and eventful life came to a peaceful close at 9:20 Sunday night, when Capt. Geo. H. McKinney passed into the great beyond. He was born in this county Jan. 31, 1818 and was consequently nearly 81 years of age. With the exception of the time he served in the civil war all his busy life was spent here, where he made and maintained a reputation for sterling honesty and uprightness. He was instrumental in raising a company for the Mexican war, but being elected about that time to the Legislature, he was prevailed on to stay at home by his brother-in-law, James Paxton, who wished to go in his stead. Previous to the civil war he was elected circuit clerk of this county, but resigned to become quartermaster in Col. Landram's regiment, the 19th Kentucky Infantry, afterwards being promoted to division quartermaster. After the war he was travelling passenger agent for the Vandalia lines and continued to serve those roads as long as he was able to get about well. He was then given a position in the revenue service and of late years has been a pension agent. For sometime past he has been almost helpless and since September last, his son, A. A. McKinney, with whom he lived, has had to be up with him every night, often for the greater part of it. After being unconscious for a day or two, he came to himself early Sunday morning and asked his son, W. G. McKinney, who had arrived from Montgomery, to divide his effects at his direction among his children. Later in the day Rev. J. B. Crouch called and as his pastor, Rev. S. M. Rankin, was ill, he asked him to preach his funeral discourse, from a certain chapter and the verse. In the afternoon he called the family about him and after offering a most fervent prayer, bade each of the children present good-bye and thanked them for their goodness to him, especially Mrs. A. A. McKinney, who he said was a kind, Christian woman, and had been a real daughter to him. Then he said: "I am ready, Praise the Lord, I'm dying." He then relapsed into unconsciousness from which he never recovered.

Capt. McKinney married Miss Hannah Paxton, who was a step-sister and they lived happily together for 52 years when she was called to her reward.

SIX children were born to them, the two mentioned, Mrs. Wm. Royston, of Garrard, and Supt. James I. McKinney, of the L. & N., with headquarters at Montgomery, surviving. Capt. McKinney was a member of the Presbyterian church for years and died firm in the faith. The funeral will occur at Mr. A. A. McKinney's this morning at 10, Rev. J. B. Crouch officiating, and then the Odd Fellows will take charge of the remains and lay them away in Buffalo Springs Cemetery, of which he was an original incorporator and a director at the time of his death.

The pipe line has been completed between Somerset and the Wayne county oil fields.

HOUSE with six rooms, a kitchen and a basement, on Main Street, for rent. Apply to W. P. Walton.

BUILDING LOTS.—Two nice building lots, 1½ acres in all, for sale. See back of my residence. J. B. Owens.

DON'T fail to see the hay seed band parade tomorrow. It is immense. After that tie to McRoberts' Store and get a ticket to the Si Plunkard show that night.

THE Boyle county bonds, $46,600 4 per cent., with an average of eight years to run, sold Saturday to Season & Mayer, of Cincinnati, at a total premium of $1,246, very close to 3 per cent. The court very wisely required a forfeiture of $1,000 from bidders.

TAKEN TO SPRINGFIELD.—Our writ up from Washington county Marshal O. J. Newland and Jailer DeBord arrested D. Coffey at Jim Goode's Friday morning. Coffey is charged with shooting and wounding Goleman Key and Marshal Newland took him to Springfield Saturday.

THE war tax on marriage bonds will cost County Clerk George B. Cooper $22.50. He did not put on the 50 cent stamp for some time after July 1st, having been informed by what he thought good authority that it was not necessary. He has been notified, however, that the bonds must yet be stamped and the money of course will come out of his pocket.

WHERE IS HE?—The war department has written Mrs. J. E. Portman that Winfred Portman sailed from Fort Columbus for Porto Rico Dec. 29, but as neither the war department nor Mrs. Portman have been made aware of his arrival, the mother is naturally uneasy.

At Paducah, Frank Knight and Miss Harriet Wright were married after a courtship of 25 years.

Thomas Daugherty, of Baileyville, Ind., was dangerously shot by his wife, whom he threatened to whip.

Miss Virginia Gentry, daughter of Squire Charles Gentry, and Mr. E. T. Caldwell, both of Harrodsburg, came to Danville and were married.—Advocate.

Stephen White, of Boston, discovered a few hours before the appointed time for the ceremony that his intended bride was his sister. The girl was placed in a home for the poor at an early age and was lost sight of by her brother.

CHANCELLOR-MATHENY.—Though they had been lovers for some time, the marriage Sunday at 6 P. M. of Mr. Jos. T. Chancellor and Miss Mary Matheny surprised even the family of the young man as well as their many friends. The ceremony occurred at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Matheny, and was pronounced by Rev. W. M. Britt. The happy pair then drove to the Methodist church here where they were the recipient of many congratulations. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. Bedell Chancellor and is a most excellent young man, of exemplary habits and fine business qualifications. That he knows how to keep his own counsel is shown in the fact that he did not tell his parents of his marriage till 2 P. M. of the day that he led his bonnie bride to the altar. His choice for a life partner also shows that he is a man of taste, as his bride is lovely, lovable and highly cultivated, and will make him a help-meet in every sense of the word. Mr. and Mrs. Chancellor will make their home at Mrs. Matheny's and he will take charge of the farm, where let us hope blooming roses and bountiful crops may line their pathway and add still further to their cup of happiness.

THE Vicksburg Citizen of July 2nd, 1863, printed on wall paper, is a highly prized relic of the war, which has been in the possession of Mr. Mack Huffman for years. The paper makes sport of "the Yankee Generalissimo, Surnamed Grant", who had expressed his intention of dining in the besieged city on the following 4th of July, but a note at the bottom of its only page dated that day admits the general was right and that the flag of the Union was floating over the city.

ONLY about a third of those notified that their property had been raised by the supervisors came in to show cause why it should remain at the price they gave to the assessor and the board finished its work early Friday afternoon. The raise was $100,982, making the total value of the county's wealth $4,461,082.

OUR Mr. Vernon correspondent was mistaken. George C. Fish, whose home burned in Rockcastle the other day, had $500 insurance on his house, $225 on his furniture and $100 on his smokehouse and its contents, all in the Home Insurance Co., of New York. Agent R. B. Mahony insured him about three weeks ago. The loss will be paid at once.

THE First National Bank had to call on outsiders to run its business Friday. President J. S. Hocker was down with grip. Cashier J. J. McRoberts had other ailments besides a boil on his nose and Assistant Cashier A. A. McKinney was at the bedside of his sick father the greater part of the day. Miss Sue Rout and Attorney P. M. McRoberts were pressed into service and ran the business like veterans.

Yesterday the bank was closed entirely, Messrs. Hocker and McRoberts continuing sick and Mr. McKinney being absent on account of the death of his father.
